

BALI DECLARATION ON
ASEAN COMMUNITY IN A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF NATIONS
“BALI CONCORD III” PLAN OF ACTION
2013-2017

At the 19th ASEAN Summit on 17 November 2011 in Bali, the ASEAN Leaders signed the Bali Declaration on ASEAN Community in a Global Community of Nations, also known as the Bali Concord III. This is a response to the new reality and emerging challenges that confront ASEAN, which defy a single national solution and call for cooperation among nations at all levels simultaneously in order to respond more effectively to the myriad of complex and dynamic global challenges of the 21st century.

The Bali Concord III is a manifestation of ASEAN's global outreach to contribute further in a more coordinated, cohesive, and coherent manner. It reflects ASEAN's commitment to take an increasing role in addressing global challenges by enhancing collaboration to adopt common position on issues of mutual interest in regional and international fora.

Following the commitment of ASEAN Leaders to bring the ASEAN common platform on global issues into reality by 2022 as stipulated in the Bali Concord III, the measures below are designed to implement the Bali Concord III for the period of 2013 – 2017 and also to enhance ASEAN's role in contributing towards finding solutions to global challenges; and to further promote ASEAN as a reliable regional player in the global community of nations. A review process will be undertaken in 2017 which is aimed at ensuring the timely attainment of the goals and objectives of the Bali Concord III.

A. POLITICAL-SECURITY COOPERATION

1. Peace, Security, and Stability

- a. Respect the principles of the independence, sovereignty, equality, territorial integrity, non-interference, and national identity of all nations.

Actions:

- i. Ensure the effective implementation of the TAC and strengthen its role as the code of conduct governing inter-state relations in the region.
- ii. Encourage further accession to the Treaty of Amity and Cooperation in Southeast Asia (TAC) by non-ASEAN Member States in accordance with the Guidelines for Accessions to the TAC.
- iii. Conduct seminars or workshops to assess the implementation of the TAC, including exploring the possibility of convening a conference of High Contracting Parties to the TAC.

- iv. Ensure also the effective implementation of the Declaration of the East Asia Summit on the Principles for Mutually Beneficial Relations as guiding principles for friendly and mutually beneficial relations.
- v. Strengthen cooperation within the ASEAN Regional Forum (ARF) and enhance its role at a pace comfortable to all ARF participants with the view to ensuring peace, security, and stability in the region and beyond.
- vi. Ensure the full implementation of the Declaration on the Conduct of Parties in the South China Sea (DOC) for peace and stability in Southeast Asia and the wider region.
- vii. Work towards the early conclusion and ensure the effective implementation of a regional Code of Conduct in the South China Sea.
- viii. Implement the work of the ASEAN Defence Ministers' Meeting Plus (ADMM-Plus), including the ADMM-Plus Experts Working Groups (EWGs) work plans and ensure the ASEAN centrality in the process.
- ix. Promote the publication of an annual security outlook by ASEAN and encourage the publication of white papers on defense by ASEAN Member States and ASEAN Dialogue Partners with a view to deepening mutual understanding and trust among countries in the region and beyond.

b. Rely on peaceful settlement of disputes in accordance with international law.

Actions:

- i. Utilise effectively the ASEAN Institute for Peace and Reconciliation (AIPR) as the institution for research activities on peace, conflict management and conflict resolution, including exploring collaboration and networking of the AIPR, in accordance with its Terms of Reference.
- ii. Conduct inter-regional and international seminars and workshops on conflict prevention and confidence building measures, preventive diplomacy, and post-conflict peace building.
- iii. Develop a pool of experts from ASEAN Member States as resource persons to assist relevant regional and international organisations, including the United Nations (UN), in conflict management and conflict resolution activities.
- iv. Encourage ASEAN to play a constructive role in and promote a rules-based approach towards the peaceful settlement of disputes, in accordance with the ASEAN Charter, the TAC and other relevant ASEAN instruments as well as international law with a view to maintaining and promoting regional and international peace and security.

c. Renounce aggression and the threat or use of force or other actions in any manner inconsistent with international law.

Actions:

- i. Compile best practices from different regional and international organisations and promote friendly relations and cooperation among nations.
- ii. Carry out technical cooperation with the UN and relevant regional organisations where feasible to exchange expertise and experiences in areas that can contribute towards maintaining peace and stability.

d. Promote the culture of peace, which includes, inter alia, respect for diversity, promotion of tolerance, and understanding of faiths, religions, and cultures, in accordance with applicable domestic laws.

Actions:

- i. Encourage the active participation of relevant representatives to inter-faith dialogues from different regions in order to spread the spirit of moderation to the grassroots level to strengthen people's religious understanding.
  - ii. Promote national and regional initiatives on peace by cooperating and collaborating with other relevant regional and international organisations in conducting regional and international workshops and seminars focusing on respect for diversity, promotion of tolerance and understanding of faiths, religions, and cultures.
  - iii. Promote the use of internet, news media, and all available means of communication, in accordance with applicable domestic laws, to effectively disseminate the culture of peace and tolerance worldwide.
  - iv. Intensify the involvement of youth and other members of the community, including teachers, religious leaders, and public figures, in activities relevant to the promotion of tolerance, respect, and understanding of cultures, faiths, religions, and cultures.
  - v. Establish a panel of experts from ASEAN Member States as resource persons to promote tolerance, moderation, and dialogue among civilisations.
  - vi. Implement the recommendations in the Manila Statement on ASEM Interfaith Dialogue on Migration to enhance regional and international cooperation in addressing challenges associated with areas such as migration.
- e. Promote initiatives, such as the initiative on Global Movement of the Moderates (GMM), as part of ASEAN's positive contribution to global peace and security.

Actions:

- i. Continue to explore the ways and means to further develop the GMM initiative.
  - ii. Develop and implement a roadmap to promote the GMM initiative through concrete measures, inter alia, organisation of the International Lecture Series, academic exchange, the participation of the youth and to consolidate ASEAN position on this matter in appropriate international forum, including in the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) framework.
  - iii. Collaborate with ASEAN Dialogue Partners, relevant international organisations and international parties, through, inter alia, sharing of best practises and case studies as well as encourage the involvement of other relevant stakeholders in advancing GMM activities.
- f. Promote ASEAN Member States active participation in peacekeeping and post-conflict peace building efforts, based on the readiness of respective ASEAN Member States

Actions:

- i. Take stock and explore the possibility of establishing a database on peacekeeping and post-conflict peace building capabilities as appropriate of participating ASEAN Member States.
- ii. Intensify cooperation with the UN and promote the role and contributions of relevant international organisations on humanitarian assistance.
- iii. Encourage joint participation of ASEAN Member States in UN peacekeeping missions and post-conflict peace-building.
- iv. Highlight contributions of ASEAN Member States to peacekeeping operations under the UN framework.
- v. Establish and utilise networking of national peacekeeping centers in ASEAN Member States for maintaining peace and stability.
- vi. Strengthen networks and promote cooperation among national, regional, and global institutions in the areas of conflict prevention, conflict management, conflict resolution, peacekeeping and post-conflict peace building within ASEAN, as well as in connecting such efforts with similar national, regional and global efforts.
- vii. Enhance cooperation with peacekeeping centers and relevant institutions, including academics and think tanks, in other regions through activities such as information sharing, best practices, and capacity building in peacekeeping and post-conflict peace building.

- viii. Implement the Guidelines on Provision of Emergency Assistance by ASEAN Missions in Third Countries to Nationals of ASEAN Member States in Crisis Situations.

g. Respond effectively, in accordance with the principles of comprehensive security, to all forms of threats, transnational crimes, and transboundary challenges.

Actions:

- i. Strengthen the capacity of the criminal justice system including judges, prosecutors, and law enforcement officials on combating transnational crime in cooperation with relevant regional and international agencies and the UN specialised agencies.
- ii. Strengthen and enhance ASEAN's cooperation with ASEAN Dialogue Partners, through existing mechanisms, to combat, inter alia, transnational crime.
- iii. Promote closer inter-regional working relationships among defense and armed forces, and other authorities concerned.
- iv. Further strengthen criminal justice responses, as well as preventive measures, to trafficking in persons and people smuggling, particularly on the protection of victims, and accelerate the consideration of an ASEAN Convention on Trafficking in Persons.
- v. Encourage the ratification and implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organised Crime (UNTOC), as well as the Protocol against Smuggling of Migrants by Land, Sea and Air and Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, especially Women and Children, both supplementing the UNTOC.
- vi. Work towards a drug-free ASEAN 2015 through the strengthening of measures to suppress the illicit production of drugs, including supply reduction through, among others, the use of alternative development programmes and demand reduction through sharing best practices and education and public awareness programmes targeting the youth and rehabilitation programme; import and export of controlled chemical precursors, as well as implement or strengthen preventive, enforcement, and legislative measures.
- vii. Pursue cooperation with external parties, including ASEAN Dialogue Partners and international organisations, on combating drug trafficking and drug-related crimes.
- viii. Promote full implementation by relevant sectoral bodies, to prevent, combat, and eradicate the illicit trade in small arms and light weapons in all its aspects, in accordance with the United Nations Programme of Action to Prevent, Combat, and Eradicate the Illicit Trade in Small Arms and Light Weapons in All its Aspects (UN PoA) and the International Instrument to Enable States to Identify and Trace, in Timely and Reliable Manner, Illicit Small Arms and Light Weapons (International Tracing Instrument).

- ix. Strengthen cooperation and render mutual assistance in combating and suppressing economic and cyber crimes, including exchanging and sharing timely relevant information among law enforcement agencies, taking into account the need of each country to develop appropriate laws and capabilities to address cyber-crimes.
- x. Strengthen regional cooperation in the field of military medicine by establishing an effective regional network of military medical professionals that enhances professional and military to military ties; promoting the sharing of experiences and expertise among the military medical services of ADMM-Plus countries; and enhancing existing training facilities and resources to build and enhance ASEAN Member States' capacity in medical support operations.
- xi. Establish a work plan to enhance relationships amongst defense and armed forces, as well as relationships with other authorities concerned, in areas of counter-terrorism cooperation within the ADMM-Plus.
- xii. Task the ASEAN Law Ministers' Meeting (ALAWMM) to continue their work to enhance cooperation on the issue of extradition.
- xiii. Strengthen cooperation in the field of border management to jointly address, within the respective domestic laws and policies, matters of common concern, including forgeries of identification and travel documents, and to explore the use of relevant technologies to manage the borders more effectively to stem the flow of terrorists and criminals.
- xiv. Explore, where appropriate, coordinated border patrols and coordinated inspections between ASEAN Member States to combat transnational crime, particularly drug trafficking, trafficking in persons, and smuggling of goods, people and weapons, in line with ASEAN Member States' domestic laws, rules, regulations and policies.
- xv. Strengthen the cooperation and render mutual assistance in combating and suppressing the transnational crimes, particularly the document frauds/forgery and monitoring of financial actions suspected of supporting these crimes and terrorism actions.
- xvi. Strengthen the regional capability for countering terrorism threats through capacity building programmes with UN relevant agencies as well as regional and national counter-terrorism agencies.
- xvii. Consider accession of third countries to the Treaty on Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters 2004.

h. Promote maritime cooperation as well as combat piracy and armed robbery against ships.

Actions:

- i. Consolidate and strengthen the ASEAN Maritime Forum (AMF), and, where appropriate, enhance coordination among ASEAN mechanisms on maritime cooperation to comprehensively address maritime issues.
  - ii. Expand ASEAN maritime cooperation to effectively combat transnational crimes and other transboundary challenges at sea, inter alia, illegal, unreported, and unregulated (IUU) fishing, trafficking in persons, piracy, and armed robbery against ships.
  - iii. Strengthen the existing maritime cooperation mechanisms, particularly those in cooperation with non-ASEAN Member States, with a view to augment the capacity to combat illegal activities at sea.
  - iv. Support the effective implementation of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea 1982 (UNCLOS).
  - v. Enhance defense cooperation, including through information-sharing, to identify maritime security challenges and their potential impacts on regional peace and security.
  - vi. Encourage and enhance participation of ASEAN Member States in combating piracy in other regions.
  - vii. Explore the possibility of developing a network of centres for maritime cooperation.
- i. Ensure peaceful, safe, free, and unimpeded international navigation in accordance with relevant international laws.

Actions:

- i. Conduct workshops and seminars to share experience and best practices regarding maritime security, safety and freedom of navigation in line with UNCLOS, as well as maritime connectivity.
- ii. Hold tabletop exercises as well as field training exercises at sea, including search and rescue (SAR), involving both civil and military components.
- iii. Enhance the implementation of the ASEAN Declaration on Cooperation in Search and Rescue of Persons and Vessels in Distress at Sea through collaboration with ASEAN Dialogue Partners.
- iv. Enhance dialogue and cooperation with relevant international organisations, such as the UN, the International Maritime Organisation (IMO) and the International Labor Organisation (ILO) to ensure the effective implementation of conventions and instruments related to maritime cooperation, including, but not limited to, safety of life at sea, the welfare of seafarers, and prevention of pollution from ships.

- v. Promote and encourage external parties to support the ASEAN Oil Spill Response Action Plan (OSRAP), inter alia, through capacity building, technology know-how, sharing of best practices, and where appropriate, joint exercises.

j. Intensify cooperation, in the framework of the applicable national and international laws, to combat corruption in the area of asset recovery and in denying safe haven to those found guilty of public corruption.

Actions:

- i. Promote the universalisation and the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC) in ASEAN.
- ii. Enhance and encourage cooperation among financial intelligence units of ASEAN Member States in the areas of collection, analysis, and dissemination of information regarding potential money-laundering.
- iii. Encourage, within each ASEAN Member State, the participation of its society in the prevention of and the fight against corruption with a view to effectively implementing the UNCAC.
- iv. Enhance professional skills of civil servants in combating corruption through capacity building programmes, including in collaboration with relevant international organisations.
- v. Promote the sharing of best practices, exchange views and analyse issues related to values, ethics, and integrity through appropriate avenues, taking into account inputs from various seminars, such as the ASEAN Integrity Dialogue, with ASEAN Dialogue Partners and relevant international organisations.

k. Promote non-proliferation and disarmament of weapons of mass destruction as well as peaceful uses of nuclear energy.

Actions:

- i. Promote the universalisation and effective implementation of existing international instruments related to the disarmament and non-proliferation of weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and enhance multilateral and regional cooperation in this area.
- ii. Enhance cooperation in addressing the proliferation of WMD by encouraging the adoption and implementation of effective export controls in accordance with relevant international obligations and practice.

- iii. Enhance multilateral and regional cooperation in disarmament and non-proliferation of WMD and their means of delivery and related materials.
- iv. Consider the accession to relevant instruments such as the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty, Convention on Nuclear Safety, and International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) Additional Protocol.
- v. Encourage all State Parties to complete their accession to IAEA safeguards agreements.

I. Support the establishment of regional nuclear weapon-free zones and free of all other weapons of mass destruction within the framework of the applicable national and international laws.

Actions:

- i. Enhance coordination and cooperation among existing nuclear weapon-free zones and Mongolia to share lessons learnt and experiences.
  - ii. Promote ASEAN's participation and constructive role in the Conference of States Parties and Signatories of Treaties that Establish Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zones and Mongolia.
  - iii. Increase the awareness of the important role that nuclear weapon-free zones can play in contributing to the goal of a nuclear weapon-free world.
- m. Continue to work towards a consensus on the outstanding issues relating to the Southeast Asia Nuclear Weapon Free Zone (SEANWFZ) Treaty and its Protocol in collaboration with the five Nuclear Weapon States (NWS), and pursue the early accession of all five NWS to the Protocol in order to promote the effective enforcement of the SEANWFZ.

Actions:

- i. Enhance the work of the SEANWFZ Commission to ensure the effective implementation of the SEANWFZ Treaty and its Plan of Action and undertake cooperation with the nuclear weapon states.
  - ii. Continue to submit the biennial SEANWFZ Resolution to the Disarmament and International Security Committee, First Committee, of the UNGA.
- n. Develop a coordinated ASEAN approach that would contribute to global undertakings to improve nuclear safety, in cooperation with the IAEA and other relevant partners, as well as promote and uphold IAEA standards of safety and security in the development of civilian nuclear energy.

Actions:

- i. Promote the peaceful uses of nuclear energy in accordance with the IAEA safety and security standards.

- ii. Convene workshops and seminars to share experience and best practices to improve the safety of nuclear installations, including through the exchange of experts.
  - iii. Explore, where appropriate, joint research and development projects in civilian nuclear technology.
  - iv. Continue the development of a network amongst nuclear regulatory bodies in Southeast Asia, which would enable regulators to exchange nuclear related information and experiences on best practices, enhance cooperation and develop capacity on nuclear safety, security and safeguards, and promote networking and collaboration with relevant international organisations.
  - v. Initiate informal consultations with international organisations, such as the IAEA, to share best practices and explore practical cooperation.
  - vi. Encourage accession to the Convention on Assistance in the Case of a Nuclear Accident or Radiological Emergency, the Convention on Nuclear Safety and the Convention on Early Notification of a Nuclear Accident.
- o. Support narrowing development gaps in the region to contribute to the promotion of sustained peace and stability in the region and the world at large.

Actions:

- i. Garner support from within ASEAN and its external partners including ASEAN Dialogue Partners and international organisations, such as, among others the Asian Development Bank and the World Bank, for effective implementation of the ASEAN Framework for Equitable Economic Development (EED) and the Initiative for ASEAN Integration (IAI) programmes, including through triangular cooperation programmes.
  - ii. Enhance institutional linkages between ASEAN and sub-regional cooperation arrangements in the region.
  - iii. Coordinate positions on ASEAN's development cooperation programmes and projects with ASEAN Dialogue Partners and external parties.
- p. Continue to enhance cooperation against terrorism in accordance with the ASEAN Convention on Counter Terrorism and the relevant domestic laws of ASEAN Member States.

Actions:

- x. Encourage investments in infrastructure development to realise various connectivity projects through Public-Private Partnership (PPP) schemes.
- xi. Promote joint trade and investment missions with the support of external parties and business associations.
- xii. Enhance and expand public-private sector engagement with business associations and Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (SMEs) within and outside the region to stimulate trade and investment growth and increased utilisation of ASEAN FTAs.
- xiii. Enhance information-sharing on non-tariff measures of third countries.

c. Strengthen ASEAN's capacity into becoming a more dynamic and stronger segment of the global supply chain.

Actions:

- i. Encourage sharing of best practices with ASEAN Dialogue Partners and external parties related to strengthening private sector development, national policy guidelines to increase production capacity, and development of national indicators of production capacity, to enhance ASEAN Member States' effective participation in the global supply chains.

- ii. Intensify cooperation with ASEAN Dialogue Partners and external parties to support ASEAN connectivity, particularly on enhancing infrastructure development, logistics services, and the adoption of relevant technologies to support enhancing ASEAN's supply chains.
- iii. Continue to provide technical assistance to the least-developed ASEAN Member States to upgrade their industrial capacity and productivity to ensure their participation in the global supply chain.
- iv. Strengthen coordination with ASEAN Dialogue Partners to develop human capacity to ensure effective involvement in the global-supply chain.
- v. Engage the private sector and encourage the harmonisation of regulations to eliminate or significantly reducing roaming charges within and outside the region.

d. Continue the adoption of international best practices and standards in production and distribution, where possible.

Actions:

- i. Collaborate further with ASEAN Dialogue Partners and international organisations aimed at the adoption of international best practices and standards in production and distribution.
- ii. Strengthen exchange of information, capacity building, and transfer of knowledge and technology within the region and globally to enhance capacity in applying international best practices and standards.
- iii. Promote training, sharing of best practices, and exchange of experience in the service sector between ASEAN Member States and the wider region.

e. Intensify collaboration to adopt common position on issues of mutual interest in regional and international fora.

Actions:

- i. Promote further coordination and consultation to strengthen ASEAN's common platform on regional and global economic issues, in particular on those issues impacting the region.

2. Economic Stability

- a. Emphasise the importance of complementing domestic macroeconomic policy with regional and global macroeconomic coordination and financial cooperation.

Actions:

- i. Encourage discussions and exchange of views to strengthen principles, values, and sound policy measures at the regional and international levels to promote sustainable economic activities.
- ii. Promote dialogue and cooperation, including with international organisations, to provide research and analysis of the international financial and monetary system and recommendations to address the problems in financial markets that result in economic instability.
- iii. Invite international organisations to provide an update on regional and global macro economy and lessons from other countries' experiences.
- iv. Adopt, where appropriate, international best practices and principles on macroeconomic policy, taking into account the unique and specific conditions and situations in the region as well as in each Member State.

b. Strengthen macroeconomic coordination and promoting financial cooperation at the regional and global level.

- i. Strengthen financial integration among ASEAN Member States including through closer coordination with international financial institutions.
- ii. Expand the capacity of the ASEAN Infrastructure Fund (AIF) to enhance access to regional and global resources for infrastructure development in the ASEAN region.
- iii. Enhance ASEAN Member States' coordination to support the ASEAN Integration Monitoring Office (AIMO) and other surveillance tools of ASEAN.
- iv. Conduct regular event of the ASEAN Finance Ministers' Investor Seminar (AFMIS) by inviting global investors.
- v. Engage regional and international financial institutions into ASEAN meetings in relation to macroeconomic and financial cooperation issues.
- vi. Encourage capital market development in the ASEAN region, including in regional bond market development and regionally-focused market offerings of products and services.
- vii. Enhance cooperation on reducing the cost of doing business in the ASEAN region, including through double taxation agreements.
- viii. Improve the provision of remittances services within and outside the region, including through encouraging the reduction of remittance costs.

- ix. Encourage, with the support of external parties, the cooperation to improve insurance coverage in the region on disaster risk insurance and explore risk financing options and mechanisms.

c. Enhance cooperation among ASEAN Member States and with relevant international organisations and agencies to prevent future economic and financial crisis, including through continued active participation of ASEAN in the G-20.

Actions:

- i. Ensure the regular attendance and active participation of ASEAN in the G-20 and regularly share results of G-20 meetings at the ASEAN Meetings for the consideration and response of ASEAN Member States.
- ii. Expand the role of Chiang Mai Initiative Multilateralisation (CMIM) in crisis prevention.
- iii. Support and strengthen the role of the ASEAN Plus Three Macroeconomic Research Office (AMRO) under the CMIM.
- iv. Conduct capacity building and exchange of views through seminars and workshops in collaboration with international organisations and agencies in relation to issues on mitigating future economic and financial crisis and its impacts to ASEAN Member States economies.

d. Enhance collaboration to reform the international financial architecture.

Actions:

- i. Identify and work towards reform of the international financial architecture.
- ii. Establish a platform for discussions and exchange of ideas to enhance ASEAN Member States' active participation and contribution in the effort to help reshape and reform the international financial architecture.
- iii. Include discussion on international financial architecture within the ASEAN Finance Ministerial Meetings.
- iv. Increase the role and participation of ASEAN Member States in international financial institutions, including encouraging further reforms on quota and decision-making mechanisms.
- v. Strengthen profile of ASEAN as a stable and potential emerging regional economy.
- vi. Enhance coordination among ASEAN Member States to timely communicate to concerned institutions ASEAN's views and positions on international financial reforms affecting the region.

3. Economic Development

a. Strengthen cooperation with relevant international organisations in promoting higher level of economic dynamism, sustained prosperity, and inclusive growth.

Actions:

- i. Enhance dialogue with relevant international organisations to support monitoring of international economic activities from a development perspective particularly with a view to ensure a more inclusive and sustained growth.
- ii. Encourage implementation of technical cooperation/assistance, capacity building programmes, and training with ASEAN Dialogue Partners and international organisations to enhance trade, policy-making, and technological capacity.

  - ii. Optimise the existing cooperative mechanisms on food security, such as the ASEAN Food Security Reserve and the ASEAN Plus Three Emergency Rice Reserve, and explore the development of new food security reserve initiatives and mechanisms for other staple foods.
  - iii. Enhance engagement with ASEAN Dialogue Partners and external parties in support of the implementation of the ASEAN – Southeast Asian Fisheries Development Centre (SEAFDEC) Resolution and Plan of Action on Sustainable Fisheries for Food Security for the ASEAN Region Towards 2020, including in addressing IUU.
  - iv. Promote investment in eco-friendly energy and renewable energy.
  - v. Promote investment on mineral processing plants, while ensuring sustainable development.
- g. Increase productivity and investment in the agricultural sector as well as promoting greater collaboration in research and development with the United Nations World Food Program (UNWFP), the Food and Agriculture

Organisation (FAO), the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), and other relevant international and regional organisations.

Actions:

- i. Intensify collaboration in exchange of information and sharing of best practices, including research and development activities, between ASEAN and relevant international organisations to promote increased productivity and investment in agricultural sector as well as in developing food quality standards for the region.
- h. Enhance cooperation with the international community to ensure greater security and sustainability of global energy through diversification, research and development, conservation of resources, efficient use of energy, as well as wider application and transfer of environmentally-sound technologies.

Actions:

- i. Intensify cooperation with relevant international organisations for the realisation of the ASEAN Plan of Action on Energy Cooperation (APAEC), in particular the development of new and renewable energy, as well as energy efficiency and conservation.
- ii. Work towards achieving the collective target of 15 percent of total installed power capacity to be contributed from renewable power sources by 2015.
- iii. Conduct research and development in developing new and renewable energy, under the coordination of relevant ASEAN cooperation mechanisms and with the appropriate involvement of ASEAN Dialogue Partners and external parties.
- iv. Explore, with the cooperation of external parties, the harmonisation of energy efficiency standards, and green building standards.

C. SOCIO-CULTURAL COOPERATION

1. Disaster Management

- a. Promote partnership with relevant stakeholders through established ASEAN mechanisms, including local communities, non-governmental organisations, civil society organisations, and private enterprises, as well as strengthen cooperation with the United Nations and relevant international agencies.

Actions:

- i. Strengthen cooperation with the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (UNOCHA) and other UN bodies to increase ASEAN's capacities in mobilising resources and coordinate effectively and principally in conducting humanitarian actions.

- ii. Promote and support the implementation of the ASEAN Agreement on Disaster Management and Emergency Response (AADMER) Work Programme at regional, national and local and community levels to ensure effective coordination in time of emergency disaster and reduce the impact to people from natural disasters.
  - iii. Promote better understanding on the Cluster Approach to expedite assistance for the affected areas.
  - iv. Strengthen ASEAN cooperation with the United Nations International Strategy for Disaster Reduction (UNISDR), the United Nations Human Settlements Program (UNHABITAT), and other international partners in order to ensure that disaster risk reduction is the foundation of community resilience.
  - v. Develop fora for non-governmental organisations, private enterprises, and civil society organisations to promote preparedness, prevention, and to alleviate human suffering in disasters and emergencies.
  - vi. Enhance coordination between ASEAN and the UN to allocate more technical assistance to help ASEAN and its Member States synchronise various existing guidelines on disaster management as well as action plans.
  - vii. Hold training exercises with non-ASEAN Member States within existing ASEAN frameworks as well as with relevant international agencies in emergency response and disaster relief management.
- b. Strengthen efforts to address climate change adaptation needs, particularly by forging support for capacity building, to ensure disaster and climate resiliency of ecosystems and communities.

Actions:

- i. Enhance coordination and cooperation between Disaster Risk Reduction (DRR) and Climate Change Adaptation (CCA) agencies at national, regional, and global levels for planning and implementation of programmes and activities.
  - ii. Improve the level of understanding of the scientific and practical issues involved in linking DRR and CCA.
- c. Enhance public awareness and promote public participation in programmes related to disaster risk reduction and emergency response in order to promote community resilience to disasters.

Actions:

- i. Promote greater involvement of private sector in resource mobilisation and activities related to disaster preparedness, risk reduction and emergency response.
  - ii. Promote education programmes on a regular basis including developing school curriculum in order to improve public awareness and encourage public participation through conducting disaster risk reduction and emergency response exercises.
  - iii. Convene workshops and seminars to share experience and best practices and lessons learnt, especially workshops on indigenous knowledge and local culture on disaster management.
  - iv. Develop a website to promote disaster risk management such as disaster awareness and preparedness, prevention, DRR and CCA response and recovery, as well as share information related to disaster relief efforts such as deployment procedures and standby arrangements, which is accessible in various languages.
  - v. Develop a mechanism to pool/collect assistance from the communities and distribute the assistance to the affected community.
  - vi. Promote and support the ASEAN Day for Disaster Management.
  - vii. Promote the visibility of ASEAN among the personnel engaged in humanitarian missions through the display of both national and ASEAN flags or logo.
- d. Enhance civil-military coordination in providing effective and timely response to major natural disasters and enhance cooperation among ASEAN militaries in Humanitarian Assistance and Disaster Relief (HADR) through the familiarisation with each other's model of operation as well as identified areas for improvement in HADR capacity-building and improved military-to-military and civilian-military communication and coordination.

Actions:

- i. Strengthen mutual understanding and confidence among ADMM-Plus Members by establishing specific and effective mechanisms for HADR among defense forces of ADMM-Plus countries and formulating plans of action for concrete cooperation activities.
- ii. Foster close partnerships and collaborations between civilian and military personnel, at national, regional, and global levels to promote disaster resilience through workshops, seminars, exercises and other activities in order to enhance understanding during emergency response operations.

- iii. Conduct, on a regular basis, the ASEAN Regional Forum Disaster Relief Exercise (ARF DiREx) in providing effective and timely response to disasters.

e. Facilitate regional cooperation on disaster risk reduction programmes particularly, but not limited to, the conduct and institutionalisation of regional disaster risk assessment, early warning, and monitoring.

Actions:

- i. Organise workshops on the conduct and institutionalisation of regional disaster risk assessment, early warning, and monitoring.
  - ii. Promote both table-top and field training exercises.
  - iii. Promote Urban DRR and Community-Based DRR.
  - iv. Develop and implement a regional risk assessment programme that establishes protocols and best practices to complement existing ASEAN Member States initiatives.
  - v. Promote wider utilisation of services of existing regional facilities, such as ASEAN Specialised Meteorological Centre (ASMC) and ASEAN Earthquake Information Centre (AEIC) in providing early warning information and technical advisories to enhance regional disaster preparedness.
  - vi. Ensure the nations are able to establish, maintain, and periodically review their disaster early warning arrangements, including early warning systems, communication network, as well as public awareness and preparedness.
  - vii. Formulate policies and procedures to support monitoring of hazards, vulnerabilities, and disaster management capacities.
  - viii. Establish a regional mechanism and support system to facilitate cooperation, monitor hazards which have transboundary effects, and exchange of information including early warning information through appropriate arrangements.
  - ix. Develop an international guideline on disaster risk assessment, early warning, and monitoring.
  - x. Strengthen ASEAN regional and thematic platform on disaster risk reduction.
- f. Strengthen cooperation between the ASEAN Coordinating Centre for Humanitarian Assistance on disaster management (AHA Centre) and relevant regional and international organisations and agencies for ensuring prompt and smooth communication in times of disaster as well as enhancing coordination mechanisms to facilitate the flows of support in a timely manner.

Actions:

- i. Support the operationalisation of the AHA Centre to facilitate cooperation and coordination among ASEAN Member States and with external parties, including relevant UN agencies and international organisations.
- ii. Enhance the AHA Centre's capacities and information technology in order to facilitate its operation in providing timely response to disaster.
- iii. Establish a fully functioning ASEAN Disaster Information Sharing and Communications Network to promote sharing of information and best practices as well as facilitate decision-making process.
- iv. Conduct international workshops and seminars on how to accelerate Member States' and AHA Centre response in timely manner arriving on the affected points with the involvement of transportation and telecommunication companies.

2. Sustainable Development, Environment, and Climate Change
